

Sleeping Beauty

Peter Ilyitch Tchaikovsky

Still waiting for my ship to come in
Still looking for the right kinda friend
There are things inside things that can't be denied
What am I waiting forA sleeping beauty, so helpless
 Unlock my fantasy
 And while is slept
 You came in
And gave to me your key oh your keyThings that we did again and again
 Things that I thought would never never end
There are things inside things that can't be denied
What am I waiting forA sleeping beauty, so helpless
 I confess of perfect design
 And while is slept
 You came in
 And took this heart of mine
 A sleeping beauty, so helpless
 Unlock my fantasy
 And while is slept
 You came in
And gave to me your keyI looked around I saw your face
 Then I kissed you in a very nice place
 What was I looking for
Still waiting, still waiting, still waiting
 Waiting waiting for you
 Ooh baby
I'm still rootin' for you honeyYou showed me how to give
This selfish hear t of mineOh a sleeping beauty, so helpless
 Unlock my fantasy
 And while is slept
 You came in
And gave to me your key oh your key
 A sleeping beauty, so helpless
 Unlock my fantasy
 And while is slept
 You came in
And gave to me your key oh your key
Still waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting
