

Nothing Better

Chris Lake & Chris Lorenzo

It's been long enough
It's been long enough
I can't wait for long enough There ain't nothing better, than better, than better
There ain't nothing better, than better than us
There ain't nothing better, better, better
There ain't nothing better than us There ain't nothing better, than better, than better
There ain't nothing better, than better than us
There ain't nothing better, better, better
There ain't nothing better than us There ain't nothing better, than better, than better, than better, than better Than better, than better, than better, than better, than better, than better Than better, than better, than better, than better, than better
It's been long enough
It's been long enough
I can't wait for
It's been long enough
I can't wait for
It's been long enough
It's been long enough
I can't wait for long enough There ain't nothing better, than better, than better
There ain't nothing better, than better than us
There ain't nothing better, better, better
There ain't nothing better than us There ain't nothing better, than better, than better
There ain't nothing better, than better than us
There ain't nothing better, better, better
There ain't nothing better than us
There ain't nothing better, than better, than better, than better, than better Than better, than better, than better, than better, than better, than better
Than better, than better, than better, than better, than better, than better, than better It's been long enough
It's been long enough
I can't wait for
It's been long enough
I can't wait for
