Deep Water

Charon

Peace behind your eyes is nothing I admire
Revealed, devoted to something you can't hide
Into the darkest hour she cast upon her roam
Haven't you learned how this went too far
Has it been a sin, the wait on me and more than I could reapSlow where it sleeps forevermore, buried in frail dreams
Buried in deep water, built in meA song for lost desire to make it all come alive
Revealed, devoted to something you can't hide
Slowly breathing in what they have praised to still Haven't they learned how this went too far
The wait on me, the more than I could reapSlow where it sleeps forevermore, buried in frail dreams
Buried in deep water, built in meWhere it sleeps forevermore, buried in frail dreams
She's on for the everlast scum-desire and the lust will burn her eyes
Free round in heaven and back to hell, where the courage blows the hornsSlow where it sleeps forevermore, buried in frail dreams
Buried in deep water, built in me
Where it sleeps forevermore, buried in frail dreams
