Madeline

Embrace

Dont let it go, I feel like everyones
Calling my name and im still alone
You Oughta know that I would change
Everything just to sing to you while your aloneAnd later I'll wade in again, over my head all my mind
I wanted to say what you meant and I'm out of time
I'm useless and stupid, impulsive I had you I let you go
Theres something inside me it stops me I wish I could break its holdI need to break out of my skin
Throw my heart in the ring
Breakdown and change everything
Before we rush in again
But I'll never chase you or call you up
Just to see where we'd end
I wanted to feel how I felt on that day I met MadelineI need to break out of my skin
Throw my heart in the ring
Breakdown and change everything
Before we rush in
But I'll never chase you or call you up
Just to see where it ends
I wanted to fell how I felt on that day I met Madeline
