No Show Tonight

Phoebe Snow

There'll be no show tonight and no, no
The music won't sound right
The audience is being impolite
And I can't act tonight, don't make me
And I can't act tonightI guess I missed my cue
When he said we were through
He walked up the stage with some ingenue
And all I can act is blue, I really mean it
No, no stand in will doTake back your Oscar
Your horseshoe made of flowers
You'll find me down at the local pool hall
Tying up the phone for hoursWho could have guessed how He'd rewrite the script for me
I might be Sarah Heartburn
But I can't cover up this jealousy
And I can't cover up this jealousyLet me fly again soon
And give back my toy balloon
He's got me grounded in my dressing room
Well that man's got me grounded in my dressing roomThere'll be no show tonight, no, no
The music won't sound right
The audience is being impolite
And I can't act tonight, don't make me yeah
I can't act tonight, and I can't actI can't be Sarah Heartburn
I can't be Sarah Heartburn
No, no, no, oh
