

Change

The Adicts

Talking about you
Down at Gino's
He said he'd seen you
Fooling around with John
Well what do you think
That you're doing with that loser
He's never one for hanging around too long
Something has gone wrong
And I can see the change in you
I was thinking maybe I should call you
We need to talk about the way you act
We've got to sit down
And work it out together
Cause you've changed and, baby, that's a fact
Why do you seem so amused
You never used to be so cruel
Why am I confused
I can't believe it
