Jealousy

Robert DeLong

[Chorus]
Twist your tiny lies into the truth
Spinning a web with your fantasies
Turn your doubtful eyes back onto you
You're pushing me out with your jealousyYou're pushing me out with your jealousy (x2)In the corner
I saw you lift that fateful face
Heard you preaching
The gospel that you helped to shapeWatching it all together
Making the pieces fit
But I don't buy a piece of it
Selling your speculations
Admitting you're counterfeit
You got me I must admit[Chorus]
Twist your tiny lies into the truth
Spinning a web with your fantasies
Turn your doubtful eyes back onto you
You're pushing me out with your jealousyYou're pushing me out with your jealousy (x2)In the future
I'll see you coming from afar
You'll get closer and I'll forget just what you areWatching it all together
Make the pieces fit
And I'll buy every piece of it
Selling your speculations
Admit you're counterfeit
You got me I must admit[Chorus]
Twist your tiny lies into the truth
Spinning a web with your fantasies
Turn your doubtful eyes back onto you
You're pushing me out with your jealousyYou're pushing me out with your jealousy (x2)I've had a note of what you've been telling me
You're pushing me out
You're pushing me out
You're pushing me out with your jealousy[Chorus x2]
Twist your tiny lies into the truth
Spinning a web with your fantasies
Turn your doubtful eyes back onto you
You're pushing me out with your jealousy
