Vintage Trouble

Nevermore will I be the one who cries
Nevermore will I be the one who crawls
Nevermore will I be the one who dies
From the knives that you're throwing Nevermore will I be the one who breaks
I am done being the deaf and blind
Nevermore will I make the same mistake
The mistake of not knowing
Where I'm going Well, I tripped and I fell
Right under your spell
Your eyes they lured me in
I was hypnotized and mesmerized
But I swear to you
My heart won't fall again
Nevermore will I be the one who waits
No more am I your holding call
Nevermore will I be the one who hates
Hates himself for loving you Nevermore will I be the one who hopes
On the day you finally come around
Nevermore will I be the one who copes
With the fire you're dragging me through
I'm letting loose Well, I tripped and I fell
Right under your spell
Your eyes they lured me in
I was hypnotized and mesmerized
But I swear to you
My heart won't fall again My heart won't fall again
My heart done fallin'
Well, I tripped and I fell
Right under your spell
Your eyes they lured me in
I was hypnotized
I was mesmerized
But I swear to you, my heart won't fall again I swear to you, my heart won't fall again
I swear to you, my heart won't fall again, baby
I swear to you, my heart won't fall again I swear it
I swear it I'm swearing
No no more
No no more, woah
No no more

No no more, woahI swear it

I swear itI swear that

My heart won't fall again
