Move Away

Broken Spindles

Last time I said I was in control
I had 25 debts and we both know
When you come back now, you'll see my face
I said 25 debts and we both pray
While I move away, hard times don't come until tomorrow
These eyes don't see, take your skin off when you're listen to me
Move away, hard times don't come until tomorrow
These eyes in me take your skin off when you're talkin' to me, me
Oh, what a world that we both come in
I said, hold it to the rock and let it in Oh, what a world that we are in
I said, hold it to the rock and we're both in
While I move away, hard times don't come until tomorrow
These eyes don't see, take your skin off when you're listen to me
Move away, hard times don't come until tomorrow
These eyes don't see, take your skin off when you're listenin' to me
Don't worry 'bout what might have been
Just tell your woman that you're sorry
And you jumped out of your skin, listen closely to your motto
Don't worry 'bout what might have been, tell the jury that you're sorry
And you jump out of your skin, I wanna jump out of my skin
I wanna jump out of my skin and watch the clouds
Move away, I'm never gonna live it down
Move away, move away, move, move, move away, move away
Move away, hard times don't come until tomorrow
These eyes don't see, take your skin off when you're listen to me
Move away, hard times don't come until tomorrow
Move away, move away, move away, move away

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/