Agress

Earth Crisis

Tried to stop my progress, set a wall in my path
Tried everything possible to make me come in last
Wanted so hard to see me fall and to stay down
Every time I am the one that picks myself up off the groundI can feel their eyes on me
I can sense they're watching mePushed past the point where all the rest expired
I know I'll win, all will be mine with time
Too much speed to stop the momentum now
When I succeed it is not just my victoryI can feel their eyes on me
(Agress upon the antagonists)
(Agress upon the antagonists)
I can sense they're watching me
(Agress upon the antagonists)
(Agress upon the antagonists)Pushed past the point where all the rest expired
I know I'll win, all will be mine in time
Too much speed to stop the momentum now
When I succeed it is not just my victoryTime is going to teach what truly matters
If they live long enough to understand it
Time is going to teach what truly matters
If they live long enough to understand it
Time is going to teach what truly mattersTried to stop my progress, set a wall in my path
Tried everything possible to make me come in last
Wanted so hard to see me fall and to stay down
Every time I'm the one that picks myself up off the groundI can feel their eyes on me
(Agress upon the antagonists)
(Agress upon the antagonists)
I can sense they're watching me
(Agress upon the antagonists)
(Agress upon the antagonists)
