

Wonderland (feat. Angie Stone)

Earth, Wind & Fire

Come on in and enter as a child
Always wear a smile
Love and laughter here all the while
The flag of salvation waves around Freedom here abounds
The joy in the sound
Calls my name, on this day I know my heart is free in wonderland
And it's all because of you my Lord
And all my eyes can see in wonderland
Every day a sunny day Leave behind your shame and your disgrace
Here they have no place
You will wear the garment of His grace
The rising sun will never set again Sorrows at its end
And every word that spoken shouts amen
Take me there I know my heart is free in wonderland
And it's all because of you my Lord
And all my eyes can see in wonderland
Every day a sunny day I know my heart is free in wonderland
And it's all because of you my Lord
And all my eyes can see in wonderland
Every day a sunny day Every day's a world of peace, peace
Flows like a river through me, me
Calls my name, on this day I know my heart is free in wonderland
And it's all because of you my Lord
And all my eyes can see in wonderland
Every day a sunny day I know my heart is free in wonderland
And it's all because of you my Lord
And all my eyes can see in wonderland
Every day a sunny day Let's build a new day
Just show me the way
