

Fade 2 Red

Kid Cudi

Fought in the dark, fought in the pain
Return of the rage, return of the rage
Fought in the dark, fought in the pain
Return of the rage, return of the rage
I got the rage forcing through my veins
Listen to me
No one's home, no one's home
I can't come, empty at home
No one's home, no one's home
My head is screaming, I fuck with these demons
Got this rage running through my veins
Listen to me[Guitar break]Undoubtedly, you're saving me
Undoubtedly, you're saving me
I've gotta bleed, no saving me
I've gotta bleed, no saving me
No saving meA warrior hurt, a warrior's pain
Return of the rage, return of the rage
A warrior cursed, a warrior's pain
Return of the rage, return of the rage
I got the rage running through my veins
No one's home, no one's home
Won't leave a note, won't leave hope
No one's home, no one's home
Oh what a nightmare I'm done with these idiots
Got this rage running through my veins
Listen to me
Alone in the dark, born into pain
Return of the rage, return of the rage
Nobody's home, nobody's home
That was a warning, don't be an idiot
I will fucking bash in your brain
Listen to me
Hear the blood that's boiled in my veins
