

Forsaken

Within Temptation

Now the day has come
We are forsaken this time We lived our lives in our paradise
As gods we shaped the world around
No borderlines we'd stay behind
Though balance is something fragile While we thought we were gaining We'd turn back the tide, it still slips away
Our time has run out, our future has died
There's no more escape Now the day has come, we are forsaken
There's no time anymore
Life will pass us by, we are forsaken
We're the last of our kind The sacrifice was much too high
Our greed just made us all go blind
We tried to hide what we feared inside
Today is the end of tomorrow As the sea started rising
The land that we conquered just washed away
Although we all have tried to turn back the tide
It was all in vain Now the day has come, we are forsaken
There's no time anymore
Life will pass us by, we are forsaken
Only ruins stay behind Now the day has come
We are forsaken this time Now the day has come, we are forsaken
There's no time anymore Now the day has come
The day has come
The day has come
