Return Of The Night Creatures

Old Man's Child

Hear how the wolves sing as day become night... the earth shivers, it's on it's way, see how the fear increase they await the beast soon blood will be shed
Where he goes death will follow
And haunt you through the night,
This spawn of evil, raised...by Hell Feel his hunger, smell his breath you know you will die
when the beast of the night returns.
Now his presence reigns they can feel his wrath death will come out of the dark, the sound of magic flows in the wind the sign before he attack.
Pierced from within, swallowed by flames, drowning in blood, how will you die?
This mystic creature,
the fear in your dreams, lord of the beast and king of the world.
Where he goes death will follow
and haunt you through the night,
this spawn of evil, raised...by Hell
Feel his hunger, smell his breath
You know you will die
Return of the nights? creature?
