

Sleepwalker

Airbag

Sleepwalker Run baby run and don't look back
Run to the moon and the stars
Lose all your fears
All that keeps you down
And be all you can
And all you wanted to But you can't control it anymore
It's got a hold on you
Your life just seems to slip away
But you're gonna be ok Step out of the darkness
And out from where you use to hide
Run towards the light
And reach for all you hear
And all you see
