

Burning Up

The Expendables

I want to run away, from this awful place in my mind.

Don?t wanna do no more time.

I want to run away, from this awful place in my mind.

Don?t wanna do no more time.

I do what I love to pick me up, but lately now, I do not think it?s gonna be enough.

So I sit and I pray, better hope that someday, these problems will go far away

Oh yeah yeah yeah yay yay

I?m burning up, in the fire of my soul.

I?m burning up, there?s no way I could stay in control.

I?m burning up, in the fire of my soul.

I?m burning up, there?s no way.

My life was like a sunny day, always bright out, oh never ever ever in the shade.

Now that all has changed.

There?s nothing you can do to make me drown.

Stop me now, I?m not not gonna be the one to be held down.

Even though that I?m low, I want you to know, it?s time for me to ditch this heavy load.

Oh yeah yeah yeah yay yay.

I?m burning up, in the fire of my soul.

I?m burning up, there?s no way I could stay in control.

I?m burning up, in the fire of my soul.

I?m burning up, there?s no way.

Don?t want these feelings in my head, I wanna cry myself to bed.

No no no no no

No no no no

(X2)

I?m burning up, in the fire of my soul.

I?m burning up, there?s no way I could stay in control.

I?m burning up, in the fire of my soul.

I?m burning up, there?s no way I could stay in control.
