

Center of the Universe (Instrumental Extended)

Axwell

The shadow of your smile
Under the open skies
As I close my eyes I can feel the wind arise We're made of stardust
Our lives ahead of us
We'll ride the magic bus into the heart of love I can taste it, taste the feeling
Of the blue skies, they're for real
And we're the center of the universe
Just you and I, and I, and I The shadow of your smile
Under the open skies
As I close my eyes I can feel the wind arise We're made of stardust
Our lives ahead of us
We'll ride the magic bus into the heart of love I can taste it, taste the feeling
Of the blue skies, they're for real
And we're the center of the universe
Just you and I, and I, and I can taste it, taste the feeling
Of the blue skies, they're for real
And we're the center of the universe
Just you and I, and I, and I can taste it, taste the feeling
Of the blue skies, they're for real
And we're the center of the universe
