Spring (Air France Remix)

Saint Etienne

Dry your eyes boy,
there's no need to despair.
Forget about yesterday and the bad times that you've had.
You've loved and lost, and now you're feeling so blue, but can't you see it's me who really loves you?With the love I've got you'll forget about her,
and find it easy
to live without her.It's
only springtime,
oh, you're too young to say you're through with love.
It's
only springtime,
and I'll be different boy, I'll promise you
(I'll swear to you.)Once more you tell me about her new friend;
you say your heart's
been broken again.
How many times
have you looked into my eyes?
Don't you realise we're two of a kind?With the love I've got you'll forget about her,
and find it easy
to live without her.It's
only springtime,
oh, you're too young to say you're through with love.
It's
only springtime,
and I'll be different,
I'll be different, I swear to you.I've been watching all you're love affairs;
three years now -
don't you think I care?
How many times
have you looked into my eyes?
Don't you realise we're two of a kind?It's
only springtime,
you're too
young to say you're through with love.
It's
only springtime,

and I'll be different,
I'll be different, boy,
yeah.
It's
only springtime,
you're too young to say you're through with love,
through with love.
It's
only springtime,
I'll promise you,
I'll swear you,
oh, I'll promise you.
It's
only springtime,
ooh ooh.
It's
only springtime...
