What's Your Damage

Test Icicles

Did you ever think?Did you ever think about the words
Coming out your mouth?
People don't listen, no
They don't turn around
A useless soundYou keep saying more
It means less to me
Is it that you're so deaf
That you just can't see?So you stop and take, take a look around
Some thing's gonna get you off the ground
You try, do you even know why?
Well, it's hard to say but I'm pretty sure
'Cause last time I checked everything was in placeDid you ever think
That you're so alone?
You better stop and think
Before it's all overPlease be quiet so I can sleep tonight
What should I do when nothing is right?
I just don't know [Incomprehensible]If you never learned to read what the signs say
How do you know you're going the right way?
Well, it's hard to say if it's not an act
I can't keep my distance, everything turns to black
I've left myself open to attackDid you ever think
All the things you say
Sound so naive?Please shut up so I can sleep tonight
What am I supposed to do
When nothing feels right?
When nothing feels right?Fuck
Did you ever think?
Did you ever think, think?Did you ever?
Did you ever?
Did you ever?
Did you ever think?
