Elegy

Labyrinth

So finally here we are,
I'm walking on her path.
Soon my shade will melt with the night, setting up my trap.And like on a spider's web you'll get trapped by me!Oh, no. Please don't be afraid, I'll surely take care of you...We are victims or hunters, this is our life (just our life...)
and with a face like yours, you are the nicest prize...Once I asked to myself how far I went for his lust, but your finest features really pay me off.You've been my challenge, but now I will set your free.We are victims or hunters,
this is our life (just our life...)
and with a face like yours, you are the nicest prize...
