Somewhere Between

Suzy Bogguss

Somewhere between your heart and mine
There's a window that I can't see through
There's a wall so high that it reaches the sky
Somewhere between me and youI love you so much, I can't let you go
And sometimes, I believe you love me
But somewhere between your heart and mine
There's a door without any keySomewhere between your heart and mine
There's a window that I can't see through
There's a wall so high that it reaches the sky
Somewhere between me and youSomewhere between your heart and mine
There's a love I can't understand
Oh, it's there for a while then it fades like a smile
And I'm left in the middle againSomewhere between your heart and mine
There's a window that I can't see through
There's a wall so high that it reaches the sky
Somewhere between me and you
Somewhere between me and you

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/