

Relic

Lovebird

Living in a world
A world full of hate
Nothing can stop my feelings inside
Nothing can live after it dies

Relic

The world is a relic
To punish this world guilty of hate
Nobody will ever see the sun
Nobody will ever be young

Nothing can stop my feelings inside
Nothing can live after it dies

Relic

The world is a relic
I tried to live a normal life
I tried to be a normal guy
I tried to hide my better side
I tried to live, and deny
I tried but the world is dying
