

Startup Chime (Album Version)

Ladytron

School holiday that she could do without
A weekend break that slept in late
A beach resort under a year of rain
This is where it has to start When the AC hum inside your sleepy head
Drowns the startup chime inside your heart
Technology is there to cure yourself
This is where it has to start Unfamiliar brand falls from an empty shelf,
Without sounding an alarm,
The test results tell you nothing at all
This is where it has to start When the AC hum inside your sleepy head
Drowns the startup chime inside your heart
Technology is there to cure yourself
this is where it has to start The Northern Lights are just a band for hire Playing class reunions without end
The test results tell you nothing at all Technology is there to cure yourself A dusty cartridge from the VCs is on the way to see old friends
This is where it has to start
