

Wanna-Be

Home Grown

Here's a story about a girl who thinks she's so fuckin cool. She's just a spoiled bitch, her dad is so filthy rich. When a band becomes a trend she acts like she's the biggest fan. The dumb bitch don't make much sense, she tries to be different. Dont ask me why I think you're lame. Your tiny tits don't smuther me. You and your friends all dress the same. You're just a fucking wanna-be. She's is an anti-prep, she thinks she's alternative. She's always talking shit because she is a six foot bitch. When a band becomes a trend, she acts like she's the biggest fan. She just wants to fit in by smoking her cigarettes. You're not punk, you're not ska, you try to be something you're not... You're not grunge, you're not rock, you try to be something you're not.
