Don't Walk Away

Slow Coming Day

Way to go this time
You've done so good for yourself
And do you realize, there's consequences
For every single move that you made wrong?
And self acceptance comes from forgivenessHow long will you run from yourself
And keep pretending that everything?
Will just work out like you planned?
Just walk awaySimply betray
Everything that's been placed in your heart
Deep within your heartAnd you're waking up in the middle of the night
Sweat pouring down your face
And still you wonder why images ring true
Strike like bullets to the fleshAnd shaking with fear
You don't know what to do
You don't know what to doHow long will you run from yourself
And keep pretending that everything
Will just work out like you planned?
Just walk awaySimply betray
Everything that's been placed within your heart
Deep within your heartDon't walk away from me
There's so much more to see
Don't walk away from me
There's so much more to seeDon't tell me, I'm wrong this time
Can't you see I'm stronger than that?
