Industry Groupie

Chamillionaire

Yeah, on behalf of Chamillitary Entertainment
I'd like to extent my deepest apologies
To anyone who feels they are offended by the following content
Now that we down with all of the nonsense

If you know you not a groupie, make some noiseGROUPIE

They told me that she ain't a freak, told me that she ain't a freak

GROUPIE

They told me that she ain't a freak, told me that she ain't a freakYou was kinda high maintenance to me

Want my paper but you'll let my partner sleep with you for free

Baby, I thought that you were in love with me

But obviously, you're just a groupieSee, I got a clue when Young Dro

Said his girlfriend got a girlfriend

That girlfriend of his girlfriend

Had Chamillionaire as her manThen T-Pain said he was sprung

Said he had fell in love with a stripper

I should aknown that you was the stripper

That was on the pole tuggin' on his zipperKanye said that you was a gold digger

You always wanted to be major paid

I turned on my TV and then I seen

You kissin' on Flava FlavWe was both fans of UGK

We was both dreamin' 'bout ridin' blades

While I was dreamin', you was gettin' laid

On everybody's bed and I was gettin' playedYoung Joc knew that we was cool

Said he knew he didn't stand a chance

You stood still while my song played

And his came on and you did his dance You kept beggin' me for romance

I kept tellin' you that's enough

You turned on my boy Juvenile

And then proceeded to back that upPitbull said Culo and I ain't even

That good at Spanish

But I knew he was talkin' to you

I was down with you so I couldn't stand itDon't try to lie, don't try to cry

Ain't nothing more for us to talk about

Like Unk said take two steps towards

The door and just walk it outGROUPIE

They told me that she ain't a freak, told me that she ain't a freak

GROUPIE

They told me that she ain't a freak, told me that she ain't a freakYou was kinda high maintenance to me

Want my paper but you'll let my partner sleep with you for free

Baby, I thought that you were in love with me
But obviously, you're just a groupieGave Bun B a little groupie love

You gave Pimp C a little groupie love

And then you bumped into the whole screwed up click
And gave every member in the group a hugEven messed with my boy Slim Thug

He pulled up, you had a heart attack

You tried to mess with Game and 50

But neither one of them called you backAsk J.R., my car was pushed

To the limit on Cool & Dre

Plus Rick Ross was hustlin'

That money outcha like everydayYou knew that I loved you

Was those three words that I'd never say?

Now your business all over the radio

And it's the penalty that you have to payYou made the choice to go and be a freak

Even Akon been smackin' that

Her plan was to get ran through

By a linebacker or a quarterbackR Kelly didn't have to tell me about

Your bump and grind and your foreplay

I found out and I asked you

If this was true, you said no wayBirdman said believe dat

T.I.P. was like Shawty

Then Young Jeezy said that's right

And Lil' Jon said okayHeard you was messin' with Ray J

And you did a flick is what they say

I ain't even wanna look at the tape

Until P. Diddy said press playGROUPIE

They told me that she ain't a freak, told me that she ain't a freak

GROUPIE

They told me that she ain't a freak, told me that she ain't a freakYou was kinda high maintenance to me

Want my paper but you'll let my partner sleep with you for free

Baby, I thought that you were in love with me

But obviously, you're just a groupieTo be continued
