Surrender (McCullen Outlaw Remix)

Lasgo

You say that I can trust you
I don't know
But every time I'm near you
I lose controlI must be out of my mind
To let you in
Maybe I should try to find
My strength withinIt's only a matter of time
And I will surrender
Just give me a little more time
To open my mind
It's only a matter of time
And I will surrender
Surrender to you.....Fears, I leave them far behind
To resist you, I don't know how
Love, sometimes can be unkind
Should I lay my heart on the line nowAnd when temptation comes along
I can't hide it, I can't fight it
Feelings inside are getting strong
Cannot deny it, you've got itIt's only a matter of time
And I will surrender
Just give me a little more time
To open my mind
It's only a matter of time
And I will surrender
Surrender to you
