

Run For Cover

Gary Moore

Run, run you'd better find somewhere to run
You've made a fool of everybody
But you're not fooling anyone
Hide, you always need someplace to hide
But you can't hide from what's inside yourself
You just can't face it
Run, run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
You'd better find some other place to hide
From loneliness inside
You'd better run
Run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
Before it gets too late
Run, you're gonna run like out of time
You let the suffering behind now
And all the years have passed you by
Lies, I used to listen to you
Lies, but now I've learned to read between the lines
I've got your number
Run, run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
You'd better find some other place to hide

From loneliness inside
You'd better run
Run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
Before it gets too late
Run, run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
You'd better find some other place to hide
From loneliness inside
You'd better run
Run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
You'd better find some other place to hide
What's eating you inside
You'd better run

Run for cover now
You'd better run for cover now
Yeah
Run for cover
Run, run, run, run
Run, run, run, run
Run, run, run, run, yeah
