Carolina Blues

Blues Traveler

Trying to make a train by sunrise, gonna have to run a red light
Trying to make a train by sunrise, gonna have to run a red light
Tangling with my Carolina, you know the girl kept me up all night
And when my Carolina throw down, you know the girl knows how to fight
Don't think we're gonna make it, there's nothing else that anyone could do
I don't think we're gonna make it, there's nothing else that anyone could say
Almost got the feeling that Carolina's liking it that way
I'm waiting on the train man, to wait and take the pain away
[Incomprehensive]
All aboard, all aboard, wait for me
Wait for me, wait for me
Train man kept his promise, gonna try and go on back to bed
Train man kept his promise, gonna try and go on back to bed
I can't sleep anyway thinking 'bout what my Carolina said
And oh my Carolina running like a freight train through my head, yeah
[Incomprehensible]

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/