Wastebasket

A Shrine

Once to a friction, be often the wastebasket
A little while, according to the picture
But now this place's dead, I can't say that I'm sad, oh no
Guess I found a new way, to stay head over heels, all the time
Don't ask you to [...]
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying
Every [...] so far, since I threw you away
[...] it's my old phone, don't want your help
'Cause new things never lie, and you lied to me, yeah you did
Fucking up myself, I know I always will
Don't ask you to [...]
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying
Don't ask you to [...]
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying
Don't ask you to [...]
As a drug can be
Without lying
Without lying
