Simone

Goldfrapp

Hold me in your arms
Oh in the sense of you
When we're alone I'm free
Until the morning comes
Who are wel felt your coldness come
You're insatiable me I was blind
I gave to you the world all my world is youAt the mirror you gently comb your hair
Humming your favorite song
You are the younger me in his armsI felt your coldness come
My own Simone too casually
Daylight trickles in on your tremulous skinA moonlit tear a devil designs
You're insatiable me I was blind
I gave to you the world all my world is you
A tale to tell the world it's now your's Simone
