

(The) Wall

David Soul

He had nothing to give
So from the wall
He lived behind
He found the bricks
That were the greenest with moss
And cut them out
With a mason's bit
And gave the most beautiful
To his friends
A green-sided brick
For each friend
And his wall was gone.
