

A Fool Says

Pete Townshend

A fool says love is like a melody
Or something like a symphony
But this love is cacophony
Never changing keyWe, we can't fool our audience
We put up such a poor pretense
Don't hide a shred of evidence
We have no defenseA fool says
Love is foolproof
A fool says
Love is foolproof
A fool saysWe, we can't fool our audience
We put up such a poor pretense
Don't hide a shred of evidence
We have no defense
