The Answer

The Answer
Well I ran out of gas in a tucked away town
No bars on my phone to call home
Motel up ahead says no vacancy
Looks like I'm stuck here alone

But thereâ€™s a neon light shining up ahead
And no angel on my shoulder saying no
So I lock my truck, and I curse my luck
And search for the answer alone

Chorus:
Well Jim beam seems like an honest guy, Jose brings out the best in me
Once you go jack, you never go back, and right now that's alright with me
People say you can't find the answer, at the bottom of the bottle once itâ€™s dry
But since I'm stuck in this town tonight, the least I can do is try

Well now I can't say that I haven't been blessed
Lord knows I've had my share of helping hands
But tonight I'm drinkin' my troubles away
While I'm stuck here with my new friends

Chorus:
Yea Jim beam seems like an honest guy, Jose brings out the best in me
Once you go jack, you never go back, and right now that's alright with me
People say you can't find the answer, at the bottom of the bottle once itâ€™s dry
But since I'm stuck in this town tonight, the least I can do is try

Well it's safe to say we've all been there before
If it can go wrong youâ€™re dang sure it will
But the night time brings a brand new dayâ€¦â€¦.
Until then reach for something distilled

Chorus:
Well Jim beam seems like an honest guy, Jose brings out the best in me
Once you go jack, you never go back, and right now that's alright with me
People say you can't find the answer, at the bottom of the bottle once its dry
But since I'm stuck in this town tonight, the least I can do is try

Yea since I'm stuck in this town tonight,

The least I can do
Is try
