

If I Were A Carpenter (Feat. Joe Nichols)

Dolly Parton

If I were a carpenter
And you were a lady
Would you marry me anyway?
Would you have my baby? If you were a carpenter
And I were a lady
I'd marry you anyway
I'd have your baby If a tinker were my trade
Would you still find me?
I'll be carryin' the pots you made
Followin' behind you Save my love through loneliness
Save my love to sorrow
I'm givin' you my only-ness
Give me your tomorrow If I were a miller
At a mill wheel grindin'
I wouldn't miss my pretty dress
And my soft shoe shining If I were a carpenter
If I were a lady
Would you marry me anyway?
Yes, and I'd have your baby Save my love through loneliness
Save my love to sorrow
I'm givin' you my only-ness
Give me your tomorrow If I were a carpenter
And you were a lady
I'd marry you anyway
I'd marry you anyway Save my love through loneliness
Save my love to sorrow
I'm givin' you my only-ness
Give me your tomorrow Save my love through loneliness
Save my love to sorrow
I'm givin' you my only-ness
Give me your tomorrow If I were a carpenter
And you were a lady
I'd marry you anyway
Would you have my baby?
I'd marry you anyway
And I'd have your baby If I were a carpenter
If you were a carpenter
I'd marry you anyway
