

Lover Killer (The Hood Internet Remix)

My Brightest Diamond

Billet spied, bold sped
Across the field, crows fled
I left and wounded. Left one dead, left one.

Billet spied, bolt sped
Across the field, crows fled
I left and wounded. Left one dead, left one.

Lover killer
At the wall in the mirror
Billet spied, bold sped
Across the field, crows fled
I left and wounded. Left one dead, left one.

Billet spied, bolt sped
Across the field, crows fled
I left and wounded. Left one dead, left one.

Lover killer
At the wall in the mirror
On the one side
I can dream my future, dream my future
On the other,

I can feel my nature, feel my nature
Inside myself I have a moment to choose
To hold or to refuse,
To shoot or to let loose

The cawing crow the pulsing throat
Lover killer (lover killer)

At the wall in the mirror
On the one side
I can dream my future, dream my future
On the other,

I can feel my nature, feel my nature
On the one side

I can dream my future, dream my future
On the other,

I can feel my nature, feel my nature

I am a lover and a killer

Lover, killer

Lover, killer

I am a lover and a killer

Lover, killer

Uh Uh Uh Uh. (Lover, killer)

END
