Before the Day's Gone

Sophie Zelmani

It's so hard to tend
The heart of this man
And not before the day's gone
I'm sure i'll hold him again
I think I'm losing the grip
Or I could let it slipI guess until the day's gone
I seem to work on hat rift
But I can't, don't you see
I Just can'tYou want me to speak
And so my dumbness gets me weak
It hurts when the day's gone
That I'm tired of your needs
And I couldn't , I just couldn't
It's so hard to giveI should make you live
But after the day's gone
You want me to forgive
It's so hard to lose
