

When You Get Home

Five Star

I miss you, baby
Come on home
Yeah, yeah
Ooh, ooh, ooh Sun rising, a new day brings
Thoughts of you
Good memories, of the joy you bring
And all that you do
As I go on through with my day I
I fantasies about you in my life
And even though we talk on the phone
Its not like being with you, no Cause wrapped in your arms is where I belong
Ill be waiting when you get home
The days almost done
And night times begun
Ill be waiting when you get home, yeah I cant wait, to feel your arms
In warm embrace
Search my soul
And feel with your love
So boy I can taste it
Im so happy that youre in my life
To keep you all and though sacrifice
And all those times I spent alone
Leaves me longing for you, oh oh oh ooh (wrapped in your arms) ooh baby (is where I belong) yeah
(Ill be waiting when you get home)
Ooh you know Ill be there
(The days almost done) days almost done
(And night times begun) night times begun
(Ill be waiting when you get home) baby yeah, ooh (when you get home) ooh, ooh
I love you, ooh ooh I baby As I go on through with my day I
I fantasies about you in my life
And even though we talk on the phone
Its not like being with you, no, nno (wrapped in your arms is where I belong) yeah
(Ill be waiting when you get home)
Ooh you know Ill be there
(The days almost done) days almost done
(And night times begun)
Ill be waiting when you get home
(Ill be waiting when you get home) ooh yeah (wrapped in your arms) dont you stay away too long
(is where I belong)

(Ill be waiting) yeah (when you get home)
(The days almost done) days almost done
(And night times begun) night times begun
(Ill be waiting when you get home)(wrapped in your arms)
