Love Kills

Phazer

She was dead
I had to run, to run away
Iâ€™d open my eyes and Iâ€™d slide

I was born
The world was out of joint
I could set you free

I was past the point
Of no return of the smile I had
I think the laws of cause and effect
You try to run from it,
The more you run it grows behind
I want to edit on

I want to edit out
I want to edit out
Edit it out
I want to edit out
I want to edit out

Run, Run,
Youâ€™re running
Run, Run,
I can set my law
Run, Run,
I would let you know
Run, Run
It could set you free

Run, Run,
I am wondering
Run, Run,
I could cry your eyes
Run, Run,
I could set you free
It could set you free

I'm afraid
I had to fly, to fly away

I'd close my eyes and I'm sleeping

I'll try
Rejoin the world like it was
It could set you free

It was the hungry pit
Behind you the hole grows deeper
I'm kissing now a gun's mouth
I'm running away,
The more you try, the more you dig

I want to edit on
I want to edit out
I want to edit out
Edit it out
I want to edit out
I want to edit out

Run, Run,
You're running
Run, Run,
I can set my law
Run, Run,
I would let you know
Run, Run
It could set you free

Run, Run,
I am wondering
Run, Run,
I could cry your eyes
Run, Run,
I could set you free
It could set you free

I was born in a desert like a god
I was afraid to fly over you
Oh, time is running out through my fingers
It'd stop when you asked me to be god

I want to edit out
Edit it out
I want to edit out
I want to edit out

Run, Run,
You're running
Run, Run,
I can set my law
Run, Run,
I would let you now
Run, Run
It could set you free

Run, Run,
I am wondering
Run, Run,
I could cry your eyes
Run, Run,
I could set you free
It could set you free
Run could set you free
