Function At The Junction

Huey Lewis & The News

I'm getting ready for the function at the junction
Brother, you'd better come on right now
Because everybody's gonna be there
Got people comin' from everywhereWe got Ling Ting Tong from China
Long Tall Sally from Carolina
We got 007, the private eye
And he's bringin' all the guys from 'I Spy'Tell one, tell all
We gonna have a ballTell 'em 'bout the function at the junction
Sister, you'd better come on right now
Talkin' 'bout that function at the junction
Brother, you'd better come on right nowWe serving egg foo yung and barbecue
We got chicken dumplings and kidney stew
We gonna make big fun till the break of the dawn
I'ma shake your tailfeather, shoot it [Incomprehensible] runHold a shotgun on the rooster, dare him to crow
Tell anybody sleepin', say get out on that floorTell one, tell all
We gonna have a ballTell 'em bout the function at the junction
Sister, you'd better come on right now
Tell 'em 'bout that function at the junction
Brother, you'd better come on right nowWe got soul brothers, Jitterbugs, hip cats with crazy hats
Pretty girls with pretty smiles, all decked out in the latest styles
Memphis Slim and Guitar Jim, Betty Boop and ooo-boop-e-doop
Mohair Sam from Alabama, Minnesota Fats from Hobo FlatsGravitatin' hip-shakin' cuties now
Talkin' 'bout some fascinatin', devastatin' beauties now
They all be gathering here from far and nearFor the function at the junction
Sister, you'd better come on right now
Tell 'em 'bout that function at the junction
Brother, you'd better come on right nowI'm getting' ready for the function at the junction
Sister, you'd better come on right now
Tell 'em 'bout that function at the junction
Brother, you'd better come on right now
For the function at the junction
