

Lonely Hearts

Lonely hearts are never broken
Truer words have not been spoken
It was only you and me right from the start
You let her in so say goodbye my lonely heart You should have known by the way
She was looking that day
That I would fall for her no matter
What you had to say
With her pretty, pretty eyes
Man you should have realized
That there will come a time when there's a price to pay
But if what you say is true then I'll come back to you
So for now I'll say goodbye my lonely heart
