Strutton Ground

Steve Hackett

Leaving Strutton Ground
Through Mermaid Street
To the World's End
Through the Avenue of the 18th dayBy an August moon
Richmond Bridge
And Ebury Street by the sea
Over the Broadway and runTo the end of the Pier
From Kent to Cornwall they're Submerged by the swelling tide
A small tree house walk modelRailway and the butterfly house
The Guinness Clock and rocket
Ride all falling down
You'll hear the screams asThe waltzers go round and round
From the oil wells to Santa Monica Boulevard
From a zircon ring with theELO and a Hollywood choir
Fisherman's Wharf and
A one man band sousaphone
The Lighthouse Road and Jobsons Cove down below

Songwriters
HACKETT, STEPHENPublished by Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/