Polarity

I-Exist

Leavens of fools betray the taste
Of all the dreams that I embrace
I have enough of all the waste
There is a faith I must retraceI feel my burst of anger
I face my human nature
I have to crack the blister
I must unleash the pressureI feel your liesI feel your sly corruption
I don't need more commotions
I feel your love's delusion
I don't need more deceptionsI feel your liesI need a relief
Need a belief
Need an awareness of liberty
I need a rebirth
To clean the dirt
I need a change of polarityLeavens of fools betray the taste
Of all the dreams that I embrace
I have enough of all the waste
There is a faith I must retraceI feel my burst of anger
I face my human nature
I have to crack the blister
I must unleash the pressure[Chorus]
