13th of October 1307

Ancient Rites

The cause of the Templar's order
Was beyond religion
So brilliant their splendour
So wealthy their orderChannelling all esoteric knowledge
Into one universal thought
Innovating rituals behind closed doors
Occult traditions as well hidden secrets
Intelligence the reason of their rise
(Intelligence the reason of their fall)13th of OctoberGrandmaster Jacques De Molay
Burned at the stake at "Ile de la Cit"
A curse accompanying his last breath
Within the year his enemies dead!
Cultivating ideals so serene
Created by minds far supreme
