

Six Feet Under

No Doubt

In the morning I wake up
And in the night I sleep
Since the day that I was born
Repeat, repeat, repeat
Brought to this life, born to this life
Where was I before?
Non-existent, not at all
Will I ever know?
Today is my birthday
And I get one every year
And someday, hard to believe
But I'll be buried six feet underground
Subconsciously motivated
Natural instinct
An alter nature for the pleasure
Orthocycline
I flirt with conceptions, slow the cycle
Will the baby grow?
Social tradition interference
Control, control, control
Today is my birthday
And I get one every year

And someday, hard to believe
But I'll be buried six feet underground
I'll be dead and gone, no longer around
Spinning, spinning
Before I can recall
All the unknown chemicals
Control the cycle
The successive generations
From dust to dust
Burying my grandma
Give birth to my own daughter
Today is my birthday
And I get one every year
And someday, hard to believe
But I'll be buried six feet underground
Today is my birthday

And I get one every year
And someday, hard to believe
But I'll be buried six feet underground
And I'll be dead and gone, no longer around
I'll be buried six feet underground
