

Auctioneer (Another Engine) [Athens Demo]

R.E.M.

She didn't want to get pinned down by her prior town
Get me to the train on time here take this nickel make a dime
Take this penny and make it into a necklace when I leave
What is at the other end I don't know another friend
Another wife another morning spent
Listen listen to the auctioneer
Another engine another engine We never wrote the reasons that I need explained
Some things are givens, and others get away
This time its for myself you call it what you may
Okay, we won't say goodbye so long, so much more
Listen to the auctioneer
Another engine, another engine Listen to the bargain holler
Listen to the barter holler
Listen to the auctioneer Get me to the train on time here take this nickel make a dime
Take this penny and make it into a necklace when I leave
What is at the other end, an I don't know another friend
Another wife, another morning spent
Listen to the auctioneer
Another engine, another engine
