That I Never Had

Ozzy Osbourne

All these tears I cry
Don't you wonder why
Is it all a dream?
Never what it seems
Gets under my skin
Should I let you in?
Don't you think it's bad
To give me something that I never hadEvery word I say
Every time I pray
Look into my eyes
Distant voices cry
Is there light in me?
Tell me what you see
You want what I have Can't get something that I never had
Can't get something that I never hadShould I think about tomorrow?
Should I live just for today?
Take the light that burns inside you
Let it burn away
Let it burn away
Let it burn awayWill I see the day?
Will I have to pay?
What's inside of me?
You will never see
Won't you let me in?
Don't you let me see
Do you think I'm bad
'Cause I want something that I never had
'Cause I want something that I never had
Give me something that I never had
Give me something that I never had
