

Kinda Complicated

Scott Helman

Some call it crazy, but I call it unique
I say you couldn't replicate it on a video screen
And I overheard them saying that we got a disease
But I only got you, and you only got me
There's a moment when I'm smiling, and I'm shiny, and gold
Or a bad, bad feeling creeping in my bones
And I like it that way, 'cause I'm weak in the knees
But when it's not half-amazing, well, it kinda looks bleak
Yeah, I only got you
And you only got me
I go from elevated
To downright devastated
(Oh, oh)
It's kinda complicated
We're going in, and out, but, baby, now we're all alright
We have our ups, and downs, but, baby, now we're all alright
We're burning hot, and cold, there's no mistaking, all alright
It's kinda complicated
There's a dictionary page dedicated to us
It says some days we're gonna shine, and some days we'll rust
But they left out the meaning, didn't give it a name
'Cause they couldn't find a word for our kind of insane
Yeah, I only got you
And you only got me
No, I just can't explain it
So let me paraphrase it
(Oh, oh)
It's kinda complicated
We're going in, and out, but, baby, now we're all alright
We have our ups, and downs, but, baby, now we're all alright
We're burning hot, and cold, there's no mistaking, all alright
It's kinda complicated
It's kinda complicated
Simple, so antiquated
(Oh, oh)
It's kinda complicated
I'm moving forward, and you wanna rewind
I got a quick, quick fix, called a bottle of wine
I know we're pretty complex, it ain't always a breeze
But, girl, I only got you, and you only got me
Yeah, I only got you
And you only got me
I got from frustrated
To feeling liberated

(Oh, oh)

We're kinda complicated
