

Decision or Collision

ZZ Top

She's so fine makes me lose my mind
And I wish to apply my manhood
I'll be glad to go to her bed and
Maybe the whole band could I got to make a decision
To avoid a collision She's so tough, my knee's a little rough
From crawlin' on across her floor
If she'd place an order I'd drink her bath water
And not even use a chaser I got to make a decision
To avoid a collision Her lips are wet and I'd made the best
She's been suckin' on her watermelon rind
But she's a picture of wealth and I know myself
That I'd take what she leaves behind I got to make a decision
To avoid a collision, ow!
