

Old Grey Face (and The Way Of The Magenta)

Twin Atlantic

Old gray face
Oh how the liquid seeps
Through the cracks
Proves that my heart still beats

Destructive pace
Sure that it carries me
Through my veins
Into the sacred beat (beast)

I fell apart and built myself again
And pieces were banged against the bend
This is all you need, all you need,
Listen up

Yellow hand clash with magenta feet
Through the tens
Fashion is out of reach

Majestic plans
Throughout the summer weeks
I built a car completely crush my knees

I fell apart and built myself again
And pieces were banged against the bend
This is all you need, all you need,
Listen up

'Cause my hands are shaking
I can't eat enough
My hands are shaking
I can't eat listen up

I fell apart and built myself again
And pieces were banged against the bend
This is all you need, all you need,
Listen up

'Cause my hands are shaking
I can't eat listen up

My hands are shaking

I can't eat listen up
